U.S. Demands Equal Oil Rights

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, May 17.—Secretary Hughes states that it is the American Government's policy to make representations to foreign Governments wherever it appears that a monopolistic petroleum concession might be granted to the possible detriment of Americans.

All American diplomatic communications, he declares, have emphasised that foreign corporations and nationals have enjoyed equal privileges with Americans in the exploitation of American oilfields and he hopes that the Djambi Concessions Bill will be modified by the Dutch Government to allow Americans to participate but fears that the control of this oil-field will certainly go to Dutch companies.

Elman Vaccinated On Leg At Manila

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, May 6 (by mail).—Mischa Elman, the celebrated violinist, who arrived in Manila after a series of engagements in China and Japan, was forced to undergo the novel experience of being vaccinated on the leg by the quarantine authorities before he could land in the Philippines.

Mr. Elman refused to be vaccinated on the arm, as he feared that he might not be able to keep his concert engagements here.

Commenting on Chinese and Japanese music, Mr. Elman said that the compositions he had heard seemed peculiar to him and that European music had a much wider range and was perhaps more difficult.

Mr. Elman expects to sail for Hongkong on the Empress of Asia on May 16. He will probably then return to New York.

Polish Prisoners Being Sent Home

Moscow, May 13.—The repatriation of Polish war prisoners from Ukraine proceeds at the rate of five hundred weekly. The returning Polish prisoners are well clothed, and are in fine condition generally. A considerable number of Russian and Ukrainian prisoners are returning from Poland. The Ukrainian authorities and the population spare no efforts in providing hearty receptions to the returning warriors. The hardships of Polish captivity caused many prisoners to flee from Polish Camps without waiting for repatriation.

ANTI-OPIUM BODY ENDORSES POLICE SEIZURE OF DRUG

To Write Senior Consul Commending Refusal To Turn Stuff Over

DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED

Mr. Jovino To Ask Commissioner For Release Of $10,000 Lot

The executive committee of the Anti-Opium Association in extraordinary session yesterday passed a resolution endorsing the action of the police in refusing to hand over the opium seized in the recent case arising in the Mixed Court in which Italian Assessor Ferrajolo ordered $10,000 worth of the drug to be turned over to its self-declared owner Mr. L. F. Jovino.

A letter to this effect will be addressed to the Senior Consul.

Since the Mixed Court Assessor's order, which was not endorsed by the Magistrate, and the police refusal to turn over the seizure there has been no further official action, but it is expected that there will be developments in a few days.

Mr. Jovino stated yesterday that as yet he had not decided definitely upon a course of action and had not definitely retained counsel to take up his case, but that he would probably make a formal request for delivery of the opium to the Commissioner of Police within a few days.

He stated that he was prepared to prove conclusively his title to the drug, which he declared to have been intended for the preparation of medicines, a business which he said he had been engaged in for the past four or five years.

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 17.—Sir William Job Collins, the eminent surgeon, who was a Plenipotentiary for Great Britain at three International Opium Conferences at the Hague (1911-12, 1913 and 1914), and is the author of a work on "The Ethics and Law of Drug and Alcohol Addiction," has addressed a letter to the Times, dealing with the progress made through the League of Nations towards the universal and effective execution of the International Opium Convention.

He declares there can be little doubt that the production of opium, morphia, and probably cocaine, in recent years has greatly exceeded any conceivable legitimate or medical use, and that as long as this is so the suppression of their abuse is foredoomed to failure. Control from the source, and international co-operation are, he says, essential to combat the evil.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 18.—It is reported in Government circles this evening that Mr. Li Shih-wei has telegraphed from Peitaho, stating that he is willing to take office as Minister of Finance.

Mr. Fan Yuan-lian also declines to take up the portfolio of Education, owing to the opposition of the teachers and students, which shows no abatement. The Ministers of Communications, Interior and Navy are forthwith assuming office, while the Minister of War has notified his acceptance.

Mr. Pan Fu will probably act as Minister of Finance for the time being, while the Government will apopint a Vice-Minister of Education, who will similarly act as Minister.

The visiting Tuchuns are awaiting the settlement of the Finance portfolio, after which they will return to their several homes.

ASSIGN THREE DREADNAUGHTS TO ASIATIC FLEET

Entire Division Of Them And Additional Destroyers To Be Sent Out From America

FLORIDA TO COME FIRST

Will Be Strongest American Naval Force In Asiatic Waters Since Spanish-American War

The American Asiatic Fleet, the naval force in Far Eastern waters commanded by Admiral Joseph Strauss, will be augmented shortly by an entire division of dreadnaughts and additional destroyers, raising the total number of these latter vessels to 30, according to telegrams from Washington.

Plans have already been completed for this change in naval policy, which means that there will be a stronger American naval force in Far Eastern waters than at any time since the Spanish-American War.

The first actual move in carrying out this policy will be the dispatch of the dreadnaught Florida to the Asiatic Fleet, nominally to serve as the flagship of Admiral Strauss, whose flag at present is on the armored cruiser Huron, now in Shanghai. Such vessels as the Delaware and the North Dakota are to follow.

Although the new policy does not constitute the union of the entire American fleet in the Pacific Ocean, which was reported several weeks ago to be the intention of the Navy Department, it will mean a long step toward such a concentration. The Pacific Fleet today includes 12 dreadnaughts, three cruisers and more than 50 destroyers. This fleet, working in conjunction with the Asiatic Fleet, will be virtually as great as any naval force that the United States has ever sent to sea.

The Florida, Delaware and North Dakota are among the older dreadnaughts of the American Navy, the newest of the three, the Florida, being 12 years old and the other two 14 years old. The Florida displaces 21,825 tons and carries ten 12-inch, 45 caliber guns. The North Dakota and Delaware displace 20,000 tons, carry ten 12-inch 45 caliber guns. All three have a speed of slightly over 20 knots.

Amphibious Tank In Successful Test

THIS unusual tank, the invention of a Frenchman, M. Foenquinos, was successfully tested recently at Marseilles. The unique tank can make its way over land and in water. In the test the tank, loaded with five passengers, journeyed over the ground at a fair speed and then continued down the bank into the river, where it was manoeuvered about like a small powerboat. The photograph shows the unique tank leaving the water after its successful test.

Scores Tell Of Benefits From Healing Mission

The aftermath of the Christian Healing Mission held last week at Holy Trinity Cathedral by Mr. J. M. Hickson is manifested in scores of grateful letters that have been received by Sub-Dean C. E. Spencer and other members of the clergy. The letters have borne out what Mr. Hickson stated in his first address—that instantaneous cures are rare and that the real fruit of the mission is the incentive to turn to God for spiritual and physical healing.

"New life is received by those who seek it in faith, but to realise its benefit to the full, the sick must be surrounded by an atmosphere of prayer and spiritual help," Sub-Dean C. E. Spencer said. "They and their friends must provide conditions that will favor the fosfering of the new life they have gained."

Though sudden cures are exceptional, there was one striking case of a Chinese who. Mr. Spencer stated, attended Mr. Hickson's first service at St. Peter's Church on crutches and who was able to walk to the next meeting without support. A second case reported was that of a stuttering child who received instantaneous relief, and another grateful letter bore testimony to the cure of a case of shell-shock.

A large number of the letters received tell of the bringing of peace to troubled minds and of a strengthened faith that made life problems less difficult to meet.

"My bodily ailments were of small account, but my mental condition was deplorable," one letter states. "I am so much better in every way that I hardly recognise myself, and I feel the deepest gratitude for the mission."

"We found the mission most inspiring and full of blessing," said another. "It seemed to carry us back to the days of Christ and we saw the sick and suffering crowding around Him on the edge of Galilee."

"I feel that I should write and tell how much I have been helped by the mission this week," another writer states. "Never before have I known what it was to possess a real, living faith in God."

With a view to carrying on the work initated by Mr. Hickson, Sub-Dean Spencer has begun the organisation of circles pledged to pray for the healing of the sick. Many names of volunteers have already been received and the arrangements will be announced at next Sunday's service. Each member of a circle is to pray daily for special cases. The circles will meet weekly combining once a month for a service in the Cathedral, during which the spiritual blessing of the church will be given to those who seek it. A Thanksgiving service for all who were benefitted by the mission will be held in the near future.

Mr. Hickson leaves Hangchow today for Shaoshing, where he will remain until Sunday. After a few days' visit at Yuuao, he will proceed on May twenty-fifth to Ningpo, returning to Shanghai on May twenty-ninth. He will remain here only a few days, however, before continuing on his itinerary through China, and will hold no services during his stay.

CONFERENCE CALLED TO HEAL SPLIT OVER POLAND

French And British Differences Regarded As "Fundamental"

COUNCIL TO MEET

British Government Will Insist On Fair Play For Belligerents

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, May 17.—The past 24 hours have apparently enabled the French papers to recover from the shock of Mr. Lloyd George's speech regarding the Silesian trouble, judging by the tone of comments today, which display a certain anxiety to minimise the aspects of French action in Silesia that seemed to indicate a Franco-Polish understanding.

They deny that General Lerond, the French Commissioner, signed an armistice with Korfanty recognising a status quo, and declare that the armistice was really a submission on the part of Korfanty.

Meanwhile the fact remains that Mr. Lloyd George's speech and M. Briand's immediate reply have made manifest fundamental differences between the British and French viewpoints as regards Silesia, and the Entente has been subjected to an unprecedented strain which can only be relaxed by a further conference. This will take the form of a meeting of the Supreme Council, probably in Paris on May 22.

London, May 17.—It is authoritatively stated that the attitude of the British Government towards the Polish insurrection is one of determination to insist on fair play to both Poland and Germany. Great Britain intends loyally to carry out her engagements and expects both parties in return to respect the Treaty of Versailles.

BRITAIN IMPARTIAL

Great Britain cannot tolerate any attempt to forestall the decision of the Supreme Council by confronting it with a fait accompli, whoever the offender may be. Her attitude on the question of the partition of Upper Silesia is one of complete impartiality.

It is pointed out in this connection that the attitude of the German Government has been perfectly correct. It had no connection with the German bands which were entering Upper Silesia and fighting the insurgents. On the other hand, the dilatoriness of the Polish Government in failing to close the frontier during the first days of the rebellion is regarded as most unsatisfactory.

The original proposal that informal conversations be held between the British and French Premiers on the subject of Silesia has been dropped. It is considered most desirable that Italy, in view of the part played by her troops in combating the insurrection, should have an opportunity of expressing

Members Of Woman's Club Hear Talk On Bringing Up Children In The Far East

Difficulties With Food, Social Isolation, And Ignorance And Immorality Of Servants By Mrs. H. H. Morris

THAT ignorance and immorality of many Chinese servants, limits on social intercourse, and barriers in the way of healthful living far outweigh any advantages of life in the East for children was the conclusion drawn by Mrs. H. H. Morris in a lecture before the Mothers' Department of the American Woman's Club, delivered yesterday at the Carlton Cafe.

Taking as her topic, "Problems in Child Training Peculiar to the Orient," Mrs. Morris described the difficulties of bringing up a child by the amah method, especially after it had reached the point of needing mental companionship as well as physical attention.

"There are still many people in the world who believe that heredity is the all-determining factor in the building of character, and that environment is relatively unimportant," Mrs. Morris said, "If that were true, we need not bother about the surroundings of our children and could trust them with impunity to Chinese help. More modern thinkers, however, are inclined to believe that it is heredity which is comparatively unimportant and that environment during the plastic years does far more to determine character.

"China with its many servants easily obtained seems a paradise to the woman who has just escaped from a dreary round of dish-washing at home. It seems so delightful to her to turn her children over to a servant, and be free for an afternoon of enjoyment not complicated even by the vision of a dinner to be prepared that she is not likely to consider the serious drawbacks of the system.

AMAHS HAVE LIMITS

"Many of us have cause to feel thankful to some devoted Chinese woman who has helped us over the rough places and served us faithfully according to her lights. The best of amahs, however, have serious limitations and the worst of them are actual perils. A well-trained Chinese woman is often as competent as a foreign nurse, but even she is not likely to be of any value in guiding the development of the child's mentality. I had an old colored mammy when I was a child at home, who, though she could neither read nor write, knew the Bible practically by heart and had considerable religious influence over her charges. Even Christian Chinese women are rarely of this type.

"Another obnoxious habit of the Chinese is that of discussing all sorts of topics and using disgusting language in the presence of a child. Mothers in China are often amazed at the kind of things their children pick up. An effort to trace the word or information to its source is usually futile, as the absorption of it is quite apt to be unconscious.

There is also the gripping influence of superstition. Expressions dropped about good or bad joss may lodge in a child's mind for years and bear fruit later in the form of a fixed idea which cannot be displaced by reason. Weird notions of all sorts are likely to be inculcated by Chinese servants. One of my children, upon being shown a picture of Hoffman's Christ, said that it did not resemble its subject, describing instead a figure which indicated that she had been taken to see an ugly idol.

SOCIAL ISOLATION

"The corruption of the Chinese government and the lack of sympathy shown in cases of floods and famine are necessarily reflections of popular morality. They illustrate clearly the differences between a Christian and non-Christian nation, and also indirectly form part of a child's environment here. Parents should be careful not to make light of dishonesty by a careless shrug of the shoulder, for children register such impressions readily and are slow to lose them.

"Another serious disadvantage of life in the Orient from the child's standpoint is the social isolation. Lack of normal companionship leads naturally to a self-centered disposition and prevents the acquisition of skill in the art of getting on with others. In cities where there are few foreigners this is necessarily more marked than in Shanghai, but even here it forms a difficult problem.

"Children brought up in the Orient are frequently made helpless by too much attention from servants. A teacher at the American School told me that a surprising number of the pupils enter with no notion of how to mend or keep clothes in order. They are also inclined to domineer over the servants and assert racial superiority in no uncertain terms.

HEALTH OF CHILDREN

"As far as health is concerned, recent investigations have shown that a great deal of the illness is preventable. Statistics collected by Dr. Lennox of Peking show that many of the deaths of missionary children are due to cholera, which is caused only by putting the live germ in the mouth and which of course can be prevented by proper care. This very care, however, leads to another problem—that of continual nervous tension over the subject of food and drink. A child brought up in China was asked why Eve had been forbidden to eat the apple and responded that it was probably because it hadn't been properly sterilised.

"However, health records in China have shown an improvement in recent years. With the climate against them, with diseases caused by impure food surrounding them on every hand, and with complete lack of sewage threatening added dangers, mothers in the past grimly reconciled themselves to sickness and death in their families. The women in China today have learned that by the exercise of constant vigilance they can keep the standard of family health almost as high as if they were at home.

"Until within recent years the lack of proper schooling facilities in the Far East was deplorable. Now, however, several good schools that carry the students through the college preparatory grades postpone as long as possible that heart-breaking separation which to parents was once the greatest trial of life in China."

OTHERS DISAGREE

The discussion which followed the address did not sustain Mrs. Morris' conclusions in regard to the overwhelminig disadvantages of Far Eastern life. A majority of those who spoke declared that the mother who had the drudgery phases of child-raising taken off her shoulders was free to contribute more to the mental and spiritual development of her child than the overworked mother at home. Social conditions here are such that a mother is able to know a great deal about her children's friends, and running wild among associates of doubtful standing is far less common than at home.

Yesterday's meeting which was the last of the year for the Mothers' Department, also proved to be one of the most interesting. Mrs. W. G. Hiltner stated that she would be unable to serve as chairman next year and the Nominating Committee was asked to consider other names. Members of the department tendered Mrs. Hiltner a vote of thanks for her devoted and efficient service.

The Waring Company

A Melodramatic Farce entitled "Officer 666" was played last evening and a good house was present. Many of the audience were obviously amused because one heard them laughing, and the strenuous efforts of the Company received plenty of applause at the final fall of the curtain.

For my part however I must confess my astonishment that with such a sound company of excellent actors and actresses it was considered wise to ask them to undertake a particular type of American farce for which, as I see it, they are particularly unsuited.

In the old fashioned Harlequinade I have always understood that special people were required to do the thing properly.

The art of diving through doors, jumping out of windows, and popping in and out of boxes is very amusing if done by experts at these things, especially at Xmas time, but why ask actors and actresses who can play comedy with elegance and taste, to disport themselves in knock-about farce—and slick American farce that needs to go with true American zip, at that?

The whole company were roped into this romp and they all worked very hard and no doubt felt relieved when it was all over.

Mr. Wordley Hulse as Police Officer Michael Phelan No. 666 was the only member of the cast who seemd at home in the business and that was because No. 666 was an Irishman and it was possible to do something with the part.

To be quite frank, I hope no more of these experiments will be tried on us.

If I go to see an English cricket match I don't expect to see Baseball, and if I want to see a good Baseball game I should feel annoyed if an English team of good cricketers were turned loose on the job—they wouldn't play ball, however well they played cricket.

I like to see ball and I like to see cricket, but—well, that's enough!

Tonight the Warings are playing the delightful comedy "Mr. Pim Passes By" which brings the scent of English roses and English country house life across the footlights.

If there were any present last night besides myself who felt as I did, but who have not seen Mr. Christian Morrow's delightful acting of "Mr. Pim" as I saw it ten days ago, and the beautiful staging of the piece plus Miss Edith Smith's adorable "Dinah" and the "Oh, she's simply devastating" Olivia Marden of Miss Sherwin—if any have not seen these I strongly urge them to go tonight.

W. Bruce Lockhart.

New York, May 16.—A despatch from London states that three arrests have been made in connection with attacks on residences there last Saturday night.

Smiles from the Mixed Court

A few nights ago while a trio of burglars was professionally occupied in the home of Mr. Wong on Fokien Road one of the band slapped a shin against the lower rung of a chair and fell in a loud heap to the floor. This brought Wongs debouching from all angles of the residence, while two of the interlopers percolated briskly through a first floor window which they had taken the precaution to have open.

The Wong family evidently has an accurate ear, for when the lights were switched up and the spot where the chair had reposed was examined it was found to be occupied, primarily, by Ong Szfoo, who was encumbered by about seven Wongs of various and assorted sizes.

The elder Wong sent one of his sons forth for a policeman, but the hour being late the emissary had to go far afield. While he was absent there came a rap at the door. This being opened there was discovered upon the threshold one who jingled with a nonchalant obviousness a set of handcuffs. He had called, he said, on the understanding that a burglar had been caught and was ready to deliver the miscreant to the police station. In answer to Wong's inquiring glance, the caller explained that he belonged to the plain clothes branch of the force and added as it was an emergency call he had not taken the time to bring his credentials. So saying, he again jingled the "come-alongs," which the householder observed to be of obsolete pattern, and heavily encrusted with rust. Mr. Wong invited the man inside and showed him the captive, still frescoed with junior members of the household.

The handcuff accompanist, who vouchsafed the name Ching Dzfah, evinced a desire to leave immediately with his prisoner and got most palpably nervous when Mr. Wong suggested that he had better wait for the arrival of the additional official help which had been sent out for. Finally he decided to leave without Ong, but by this time Wong was eyeing him in hostile style and insisted on his remaining.

Then a uniformed C.P.C. arrived. He took charge of the sadly flattened Ong and was introduced to Ching. Whereupon he also took charge of that party. If Ching was a regularly acting detective, he said, he was working outside his district. And they hadn't located his district by the time the case was called in the Mixed Court so the matter was remanded a week to try and orient him. Ong also awaits.

Armed Robbers Raid Home Of Policemen

Band Enters House While Constables Are On Duty

Two armed robberies, one of them in the home of two Chinese police constables, occurred Tuesday night. The first of the raids was at 17 Elgin Road, where a Chinese knocked at the door and presented a letter addressed to the tenant. As the servant opened the door several men forced their way in. Two produced revolvers and intimidated the inmates while two others ransacked the place and stripped the women of their jewelry. During these operations a doctor called to attend upon a sick child. He also was held up and robbed of his gold watch and chain. Goods and money to the total of $350 was taken and the victims, through fear, did not report the matter to the police until some time later.

The house occupied by Chinese police constables 1035, of Louza station, and 981 was entered by four or five men, one armed with a knife, while the constables were on duty. The wife of constable 1035 was roughly handled by the intruders, who stripped off her gold bangles and rings and took also $100 in notes. A woman living in the establishment is suspected of being in league with the robber gang and has admitted knowing one of them.

Japanese Hold Up Two Sanitary Trains

(Dalta News Agency)

Vladivostok, May 12.—The Chita government requested Vladivostok by telegraph to send the two Sanitary Trains which are kept fitted with medicines, and which have a complete medical staff, for emergency and, Health Service purposes, to Chita to fight the plague. These two trains are now stationed, one, No. 604 at Nicolsk-Ussuriysk, and the other, No. 14 at Okianskaya (near Vladivostok) and would be easily available, and most valuable in the war against the disease which is taking such an appalling daily toll of life in Zabaikal.

After Chita had telegraphed several requests, the Interallied Technical Commission and the Vladivostok government issued the necessary permits, and the trains were started. The Japanese Command had been consulted, and agreed to let them proceed.

But when the question was regarded as settled, the Japanese made a proviso that the trains could only proceed if they (the Japanese) were given their exact duplicates, a manifest impossibility.

A Vladivostok newspaper, in commenting on the question, says: "There is no question but that this action of the Japanese Command in holding up these trains from their proper places in fighting the plague, is committing a crime against the people and humanity."

Chinese Journalists Are Entertained By Reuter's Agency

A very pleasing function took place last night at the Yi Ping Shang Hotel when leading Chinese newspapermen were guests at a banquet given by the Reuter's Agency at Shanghai. Mr. W. Turner, general manager of the agency, was toastmaster and Messrs. R. N. Neale, H. H. Byles, and E. P. Reading and other members of the agency formed the receiving line.

Among those present were Foreign Commissioner C. F. Hsu, his secretary, Mr. N. T. Yang, and Magistrate Shen Pao-chang.

Mr. Turner in proposing the health of the Chinese press pointed out the wonderful future and potential power of the Chinese press when China's millions will be able to read and write. He voiced the hope that China may be exempted from the "yellow journalism" stage which has affected some sections of the Western press. His speech was interpreted by Mr. N. T. Yang.

Mr. Jabin Hsu, the Shanghai delegate to the coming World Press Conference in Honolulu, responded on behalf of the guests. He expressed appreciation of the guidance given to the Chinese press by the foreign journalists and paid a tribute to the Reuter's agency for the service rendered to China in bringing reports of world events which are of vital interest to her people.

RECEPTION FOR GENERAL

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 16.—The Kansu Famine Relief Association gave a reception in honor of General Ma Fu-hsiang at the Kiangsi Guild yesterday. As General Tsai Cheng-hsun has been appointed Minister of War, General Ma Fu-hsiang will probably leave within a few days to take up the post of Tartar-General of Suai-yuan.

WHAT DO YOU SEE IN THE MIRROR ?

Does your mirror show you that your complexion is pale, that your eyes lack lustre and that lines of premature age appear in the face? Are you losing weight slowly and do you find ordinary exertion an effort? Does it tire you to walk up stairs, to work and to think? Have you lost the ability to make a quick decision and take prompt action whenever necessary? Are you subject to headaches and spells of nervousness? Do you suffer from chills, sleeplessness, indigestion and a pressing down pain on the head?

These are a few of the symptoms of thin blood. If you have any or all of these symptoms do not waste any more time in indecision and worry. Begin treatment at once with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the blood and nerve tonic. This remedy will make the blood rich and well-oxidized and enable it to carry strength and nourishment to the disordered nerves and to every part of the body.

Among those who have tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and been benefited by them is Miss E. Smith, of Walsh Street, Brisbane, Australia. She says:

"I lost my good colour, and through Anaemia soon fell into very bad health. I only craved to rest about the house as I found no pleasure in anything. Walking or going upstairs made my heart thump, and left me breathless. I often fainted away without the slightest warning, and at other times I had attacks of dizziness that made everything seem black. My head often ached all over, and I could hardly bear the throbbing. I woke up in the morning as tired as if I had never been to bed, and I grew thinner and more pallid every day. I had no appetite and dreaded meal-time.

"It was a girl friend who recommended me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The first bottle encouraged me to go on, for I certainly felt better and began to enjoy my food. When I had taken four bottles I was eating well and gaining flesh. The colour was coming back to my face and lips and everybody noticed the difference. That I am well and strong today I owe to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My health could not be better that it now is."

Grateful cured men and women all over the world speak in high terms of praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the famous blood and nerve tonic. Try them yourself without delay. They are obtainable from medicine vendors everywhere, also post free, at $1.50 the bottle, $8 for six bottles, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

A GUIDE TO PREACHERS.

Every Christian Should Read

"The Christian Preacher"

By Prof. A. E. GARVIE, D.D.

This book has been written for the minister desiring to be helped to make the best of his calling as a preacher. The problems Dr. Garvie deals with are just the questions he had to face and answer for himself when he was the minister of a church. Later, in training men for preaching, he further discovered how needful such simple, practical counsels are, especially for men at the beginning of their ministry.

It is divided into three parts: The History of Preaching; The Credentials, Qualifications, and Functions of the Preacher; and most importantof all, The Preparation and the Production of the Sermon. This part will be indispensable to every preacher. It deals with the Character of the Sermon, The Choice of Subjects and Texts, The Contents of the Sermon, The Arrangement of the Sermon, The Composition of the Sermon, and The Delivery of the Sermon.

This book will not only be read from cover to cover by preachers, but will be constantly consulted and re-read. No preacher can afford to be without it.

EDUCATION HEAD IS RECOMMENDED FOR SETTLEMENT

The appointment by the Municipal Council of a properly qualified commissioner of education who can give a more thorough inspection of Shanghai's school system which is supported by a three-lakh budget, is the principal recommendation containing in the yearly report of the permanent education committee as published in today's Municipal Gazette.

Concerning the need for the new officer, the report says:

"This gentleman would be always on the ground, would be making a constant study of our educational problems, and it is believed that in the first year or two he would be able to save the ratepayers the amount of his salary. Apart from this, the increased efficiency would well justify the inclusion of the salary of such an official in our annual budget. In the event of such an appointment it is believed that Sir Michael Sadler would be glad to select a suitable candidate for this office."

"The committee's inspection extended over a period from Dec. 2, 1920 to April 11, 1921. Fifteen schools were visited, at which a total of 14 hours were devoted to inspection.

Other recommendations of the committee include:

The renewal of the lease of the Kindergarten on Kungping road, or the purchase of the property and the continuance of the school's maintenance.

The improvement of general conditions in the Thomas Hanbury School for Girls. The building is reported as not suited for modern ideas of education.

The improvement of lighting systems in those schools which have been neglected in this respect. Both natural and artificial lighting are recommended.

The installation of larger desks and stools to accommodate the larger pupils. The enforced cramped position of the older students, the report intimates, is extremely unhealthy.

The brightening of the drab school room walls by the hanging of reproductions of masterpieces and the general cheering up of all school rooms.

Consultation with educators in other schools in China so that their experience may be rendered accessible, particularly concerning the best methods of teaching English. The committee is not certain that the Council schools follow the best method.

BAND COMMITTEE MAKES REPORT

A permanent personnel of 38 musicians for the Municipal Band, the assessment of an admission charge of 50 cents for the winter concerts and the institution of open air symphony concerts for the summer months are among recommendations by the Municipal Band Committee which are published in this week's Municipal Gazette.

The recommendation regarding the personnel of the organisation also carries a provision for the engagement of four additional temporary musicians during the winter season. In suggesting an admission charge of 50 cents for the winter concerts the committee also suggests the raising of the age limit for admission to these concerts from 12 to 16 years. In accordance with the conductor's recommendation the winter series of recitals will commence in future on the first Sunday in October and will end on the last Sunday in May. In order to cope with the inconvenience experienced on account of belated arrivals it is suggested that the doors of the Town Hall be closed at 5 p.m., when the program begins.

The suggestion for orchestral concerts in the public parks and gardens during June and July is approved but pending the engagement of the requisite number of musicians from Europe by the conductor, M. Paci, who is now abroad for that purpose, the ordinary performances will be held this summer.

Friday tea dansants will replace the former Friday dance programs at the Town Hall, with orchestral music from 5 to 6 o'clock, when tea will be served, and dance music from 6 to 7:30.

The proposal for an annual tour by the band during the month of September is recommended by the band committee but this matter will receive further consideration when the conductor returns from Europe.

News Brevities

We have received a complaint from the International Savings Society that there were typographical errors in two numbers among the winners in this month's drawing printed in yesterday's China Press. This society says that the numbers should have been 17853 instead of 17833 and 15793 instead of 15703. The copy as furnished to The China Press is so poor that the wonder is no more errors were made.

Poison Gas To Be Tested By U.S. Navy

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Washington, May 16.—The use of poison gases against a navy will be tested for the first time in bombing experiments to be conducted on the Atlantic on June 21. The target ship will be manned by a crew wearing masks. Non-explosive bombs filled with tear-gas will be dropped.

her views on a question which is threatening the peace of Europe, owing to the prospect of war between Germany and Poland.

FIGHTING DECREASES

Telegrams received in London show that there has not been much fighting in Silesia recently. The insurgents bombarded the Inter-Allied police with artillery on the 15th instant near Gogolin. There has also been fighting between the Poles and German bands near Rosenberg but it was not of a serious character.

Paris, May 18.—The tone of the French press in regard to the Upper Silesian controversy is more manifest today, and its moderation is accentuated by the satisfaction that is felt at Germany's payment of an instalment on account of reparations. This payment is welcomed as being the first evidence of Germany's good faith since the armistice.

The correctness of Germany's attitude in not seeking to make profit out of the differences between Great Britain and France on the subject of Upper Silesia is recognised, and the papers even declare that the incident may be regarded as closed.

PREMIERS GET TOGETHER

It is further stated that the misunderstandings between M. Briand and Mr. Lloyd George have to a large extent been removed as the result of telephonic communications which have passed between Paris and London.

Washington, May 18.—With reference to reports that the United States was about to take part in the attempt to effect a settlement of the Upper Silesian question, it is officially pointed out that the State Department has already announced that it is not the intention of the United States to take part in the settlement of so essentially a European question as that of Poland. No official reply has formally been made to the renewed appeal for American support, which has merely been informally declined by the Secretary of State.

Paris, May 17.—The Reparations Commission announces that Germany has handed over one hundred and fifty million gold marks, partly in gold and partly in foreign bills, on account of the demand made on May 5, and expiring on May 31 for the payment of one milliard of gold marks.

According to Reuter's Berlin correspondent, a semi-official announcement on this subject states that the balance will be paid in cash and Treasury drafts by the end of May.

Berlin, May 17.—A new Allied note received here stipulates that by May 30 Germany must endorse the Allies' list specifying those factories which alone will be authorised to manufacture munitions. It also demands the dissolution of the self-defense organisations by June 30 finally.

Armed Robber Evil Grows In Settlement

Commissioner Of Police Comments On Difficulties Of Situation

The armed robber menace in the Settlement, which has resulted in the arrest of over 1,000 persons and the execution of no less than 200 during the past six years, and seems still on the increase, is the subject of comment in the Commissioner of Police's report for April, in which he alludes to the shooting of the two Municipal detectives in Pakhoi Road.

"It may not be inappropriate in this connection," the report states, "to call attention to the frequent visits from the numerous well-armed brigand bands which roam around this region and which are from time to time drawn to the Settlement for various reasons, prominent among which is the hope that, if captured, they may be defended and if not released at once, sentenced to a term of imprisonment in goal instead of the hurried trial and swift and sure execution which follows their seizure by the authorities in territory exclusively under Chinese jurisdiction.

OVER 200 EXECUTED

"From January 1, 1915 until the end of April, 1921 over a thousand persons were arrested and brought to trial on charges of armed robbery from houses and from the person. Considerably over two hundred were sentenced to death and subsequently executed. Of the remainder many are still in prison, and yet the number at large, when it decreases on account of arrests, does so for a very short period only. Bands which are broken up generally have one or two members who evade capture and regather in the vicinity with fresh recruits, making their presence felt by terrorising the inmate of houses and plundering boats on the waterways leading to the port before seeking an asylum in the Settlement where the proceeds of their ill-gotten gains are squandered and schemes concocted for the perpetration of further outrages."

The officers elected were: President, S. Percy Westaway; Vice-President, T. B. Chang; Secretary (Foreign), Benton Sanders; Secretary (Chinese), T. Y. Chang; Treasurer (Foreign), John S. CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them wilfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better."
JOHN J. LEFFA, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

"I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an effectual and speedy remedy."
A. F. PEELER, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"For several years I recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., New York City.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild, harmless effect and freedom from harm."
EDWARD PARDEE, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is more than can be said of the great majority of children's remedies."
VICTOR H. COFFMAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a safe and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."
J. A. PARKER, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

DARKNESS HELPS SHANGHAI TO BEAT HURON NINE, 5-3; SAILORS BEST IN DAYLIGHT

Flagship Team Gets Tough Break When Sun Drops And Locals Come Through With Hard Hits; Bills Outshines The Moon

The early evening moon was shining and the shades of the Wing On Building were streaking across the Race Course ball ground last night before the last practice game between Shanghai and the Huron was concluded. Shanghai was beaten 3 to 2 before night interfered but in the lucky darkening sixth they scored three more runs and officially annexed the game.

The Huron men played a mid-season game through the early innings. Accustomed to the bright lights of Manila, however, they went to pieces in the dark. In the sixth and seventh, long after the sun had set, the civilians had it all their own way. The first five men at bat got five hits, three of which were for extra bases. When the sailors heard the crack of the bat meeting ball, they all began to feel around in the adjacent air hoping to stop a liner but 'twas in vain the locals had the advantage on light, and they counted the needed tallies.

Bills worked like he was used to performing at night. In the sixth he grabbed off two mean bounders from Scymanski's and Gage's bats that look like sure safeties. He saved Shanghai by those two outs for their big chance in their half of the inning. The Huron men were helpless at the bat at the end of the game.

The umpires also were bothered by intervening shadows. The decision which called Wilhoit safe at third on his long fly to right was undoubtedly due to poor vision on the part of the "umps." Most everyone, including Wilhoit, appeared at least to think so.

The game, discounting the sixth and seventh, was an earned victory for Lieut. Johnson's men. They had two runs tucked away in the earned column as compared to Shanghai's one. Hits were even at five each, but the Huron's were fairly bunched while Shanghai's were scattered one to an inning.

The Huron's star pitcher, Weaver late of the Manila Bay league started for the sailors. He performed well for his first game in the north. He acknowledged a stiff wing before he went in and though he worked to win he didn't put much on the ball. He held Shanghai until the sixth when Knoch relieved him.

Merrill, of the three twirlers performing, had the edge. He was pitching first class ball and might have won all of the way with a little more support in batting. He fanned four before the moon rose and two after. He allowed but one base on balls. Merrill has not yet been taken over by the Huron, and the opinion was expressed by local baseball magnates yesterday that he will be allowed to continue at the U.S. Naval Purchasing office in Whangpoo road, and on the civilian team.

The first run for Shanghai came in the first from Hopkins' single, a steal, and a sacrifice. The next tally in the third was scored by Merrill. He was safe on a bad throw by Weaver to Roberts and scored on Bills' long hit to left. Bills was caught at the plate, Prehm to Gage to Horner.

The Huron men scored in the second on Gage's hit, a steal and Weaver's double. The two tallies in the fourth resulted; Scymanski was safe on Merrill's bad throw to Wilhoit, a steal and Gage's homer. Gage made the circuit on a clout to deep right close to the foul line. Wolfe, who was playing the right garden, stood pat and let it roll. He thought it was off-side.

The night playing in the sixth was all in Shanghai's favor. Wilhoit tripled to right. The umpire thought he was safe. Maloney doubled to left scoring Wilhoit. S. F. Smith doubled to right scoring Maloney. Wolfe singled through Gage advancing Smith. Gage felt fast for the ball but couldn't see it in the shadows. Smith moved to third. Woods singled to center scoring Smith, and immediately went out, Horner to Gage. C. J. Smith fanned, ending the struggle.

FUHTAN UNIVERSITY MEET SATURDAY AFTERNOON IS LAST BEFORE OLYMPICS

Chinese Athletes Who Hope To Make Far Eastern Team Will Be Offered Final Opportunity For Tryouts; Japanese Team Sails Tomorrow

The postponed Fuhtan University track meet, which was to have been held on May 7, will be held at Fuhtan University next Saturday beginning at 2 p.m.

Fuhtan has a well balanced and a very fast track and field team, winning easily the East China Intercollegiate Championships at Soochow last Saturday. Therefore anyone desiring to see some of the best Chinese runners in this area can do so at the field on Saturday.

On the original date, May 7, it was planned that athletes who were unable to go to Soochow to try-out for the Far Eastern Games could do so at Fuhtan. This privilege still holds good, and any athlete who is still unsatisfied may, on application to Mr. C. C. Juan of Fuhtan University, secure a chance to try-out.

Inasmuch as the entries close on this date, it will be absolutely the last chance that any athlete China will have.

It is expected that many athletes from schools and colleges in Shanghai which do not hold membership in the East China Intercollegiate Athletic Association, as well as those from clubs and athletic organisations will avail themselves of the opportunity offered to try out for the China track and field team which will fight for the championship of the Orient against Japan and the Philippines.

Against the Fuhtan men they will have ample chance to show their mettle as the track team includes several stars, notably the middle and long distance men.

The China team is to be picked on Saturday as soon as the Fuhtan meet is finished as records of men from various athletic centers are already in the hands of Dr. John H. John H. Gray, who is running the games, and the members of the selection committee.

The Japan team sails from Kobe tomorrow on the Yawata Maru while the Filipinos leave Manila next Monday on the Philippine Government cableship Bustamente.

Entries For Doubles Closing On Tuesday

Entries for the mixed doubles championship annually conducted by the Shanghai Lawn Tennis Association, which start on May 30, must be sent to the honorary secretary of the Association by 5 p.m. next Tuesday. Entrance fees, five dollars for the pair, should accompany entries. The secretary of the Association is M. B. Brown, care White-Cooper, Master and Harris, 1 Museum Road.

Blood Poisoning
Yet Another Grand Recovery

Our Portrait is of Mr. WILLIAM HARBORNE, of 6, Railway Road, Perry Bar, Birmingham, England, who writes:

"About two years ago I met with rather a bad accident. My arm was cut severely, and I had to have it stitched at the hospital. This caused me six weeks' absence from work, and after resuming my duties for one week I broke out all over my body with huge Boils. Again I went to the Hospital, and was treated for Blood Poisoning; this happened on three successive occasions, until I began to think I should never be cured. Then I gave Clarke's Blood Mixture a trial and the first bottle or two seemed to be driving out the poison, so I persevered, and after taking ten bottles I was cured. It is now over twelve months since I left off taking your Clarke's Blood Mixture, and I have seen no signs of any further blood disorder."

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE, by reason of its remarkable blood purifying properties, can be relied upon to give speedy relief and lasting benefit in cases of Eczema, Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Piles, Glandular Swellings, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout. A FALL WITH A MORAL

Another demonstration of the hard and hazardous route of the transgressor has been given, the demonstrator being a coolie employed by the Thorneycroft company, 10 Kiukiang Road.

The coolie was suspected of a number of small thefts which had occurred in the offices. As a test a $1 note was planted in the seat of a chair and the coolie was left alone in the room. On his exit the chair was examined and the note found gone. The coolie was then informed that he was under suspicion. He was again sent into the room and a foreigner, from a vantage point which enabled him to glance over the transom, saw him replace the note in the chair. He was then taxed with the matter and was locked in a room, after being told that the police would be sent for.

The coolie didn't wait for the police. Mounting the ledge of the third story window he made a leap at an electric light pole, but miscalculated the distance and when the police arrived they found it a case for the ambulance instead of the Black Maria. The coolie is in a serious condition in hospital.

B. W. A. EXHIBIT

Choice blooms grown by members of the British Women's Association will be exhibited this afternoon at the Rose Display which the Gardening Section is to hold at 6 Love Lane. There will be three classes of exhibits—single specimens, collections of six blooms in not less than three varieties; and artistically arranged bowls, vases, or baskets of roses. Exhibits should be sent to 6 Love Lane before one o'clock, exhibitors to furnish containers.

The weekly demonstration will take place tomorrow at the Jessfield Ferry entrance of Jessfield Park at 5 p.m., the subject to be "Why Soils Are Mixed."

Price Of Rice Shows Further Increase

In spite of the order of the City Magistrate, Shen Pao-chang, to keep the price of rice in Shanghai below $11 per picul, the price yesterday went to $11.70 for the best quality. However, local merchants do not consider this as alarming because this grade is now in special demand for the manufacture of "pickled rice" for the Dragon Boat Festival. As soon as this demand slackens it is expected to fall.

An Announcement Of A Rich Collection Of Curios For Sale

A rich collection of curios is open for exhibition in my residence. It contains more than two hundred articles, of which the most antique Bronzes are ascertained to range from Shang and Chow Dynasties to that of the Two Hans, and the porcelains from Peh Soong to the beginning of the Tsin Dynasty. They are all well preserved pieces, real and fine. Regarding the genuineness, it has been verfied either by authentic ancient books or by inscriptions as well as initials thereon. None of them is questionable as to its age, designs, markings, etc.

In addition to the Bronzes and Porcelains, there are also wide varieties of valuable Carvings in wood, bamboo, and precious stones, also natural Fossils, Inter-Stones, Tanshi Stones, and Chrysanthemum Stones, etc. Most of these articles are magificent masterpieces of ancient fine art as identified in themselves, and already encased in beautiful artistic casing so as to facilitate transportation at any time.

Due to the successive disturbances in the province, and the recent irregular financial conditions in general, the proprietors of this collection are willing to offer their highly esteemed treasure for cash. Now I take the liberty to introduce the same collection to any Chinese or foreign connoisseur who is prepared to take same over at a favorable price.

Those interested in the matter of inspection are requested to apply to Chen Wan Shian Tan, No. 4 Shu Day Tze Kow, Changsha, Hunan, by notifying me in advance, so that I will have the honor of welcoming their esteemed visits at a specified time.

Exchange Fluctuations
Asia Banking Corporation

May 18th, 1921.

Spot bar silver was down 1/8d and forward unchanged in London yesterday.

The New York price declined to 59⅝ cents and the London New York cross rate improved to 400¼. The official rates here today were unchanged from those ruling last night. At the opening the market was fairly steady with sellers of Sterling at 3/2½, buyers at 3/2¾ and sellers of Gold Dollars at 64¾ and buyers at 65. However, as has been customary during these past few days a fairly strong demand soon set in and rates consequently eased off. At the close there were few sellers of Sterling at better than 3/2¼ and of Gold Dollars at 64¼.

There was again a steady demand throughout the day for Francs and Marks.

India is reported to have sold a small amount of silver in London yesterday. It is not at all unlikely that China and America will make sales there during the next few days. The tendency, therefore, is for lower rates.

Banking Situation Improved In Manila

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, May 6 (by mail).—The banking situation appears to be much improved in Manila, the rate of exchange with the United States having dropped to about three percent from the recent level of twelve percent or more. It is stated that the improvement will continue until the peso is practically on a two to one basis with the gold dollar.

The sudden drop is attributed to the fact that the Philippine Government has established additional credit in the United States, and has resumed the sale of exchange, which has been suspended for months.

A Word To Chinese Who Oppose The New Consortium

LEADERS of Chinese thought who are opposing the new Consortium will do well to study the following editorial from the Christian Science Monitor of April 7. They will learn from this that the Consortium already has accomplished more for China than the Chinese themselves could have accomplished and that one of the primary objects of the Consortium has been achieved without war, without bloodshed and in a friendly way making for peace and order and goodwill in the Far East.—Ed.

THE publication by the State Department in Washington of the full text of the Chinese Consortium Agreement, together with the correspondence between the various governments and banking groups concerned, leading up to the final settlement, will go a long way toward clearing up an issue, which, from the first, has been involved in quite unnecessary complexity. Some three months ago, when a very inadequate summary of the agreement, signed as far back as October 15 last, was given to the public, The Christian Science Monitor urged the desirability of much greater publicity, and drew attention strongly to the fact that on the all-important question as to whether or not any special concessions had been made to Japan the summary of the consortium was silent. Now that the full text of the agreement, together with the correspondence leading up to it, are at last available it is seen that they emphasize two facts of great importance, first, the tremendous effort which Japan made to use the consortium negotiations to secure recognition of her "special position" in Manchuria and eastern Inner Mongolia, and, second, the entirely unshaken opposition with which these efforts were, at every point, confronted by the powers concerned, chiefly the United Kingdom and the United States.

From first to last, all the doubt and distrust with which the negotiations have been viewed by the general public, for the better part of the last two years, has been occasioned by the suspicion that, in some way or another, Japan was gaining her point. That, in a way which long experience has shown to be particularly her way, she was successfully prevailing upon the other powers to grant, inwardly and secretly, the very concessions which she made much show of abandoning, outwardly and openly. Again and again, during the past year, the handling of the matter, as far as publicity was concerned, has tended to foster this suspicion.

The most notable instance occurred early last May when Japan, as the result of strong pressure brought to bear upon her simultaneously by Great Britain, France, and the United States, suddenly decided to abandon her previous objections, and to enter the consortium, so it was announced, "on the original terms laid down by the United States." This was taken to mean, and, of course, did mean that Japan had abandoned her claim to a recognition of any "special position" for herself in Manchuria and eastern Inner Mongolia. Nevertheless, such was clearly not the view of the matter held in Japan itself. The Japanese press was loud in its insistence that Japan had gained her point. Mr. Inouye, Governor of the Bank of Japan, deliberately declared that the operations of the consortium would not tend in any way to endanger "Japan's special relations in Manchuria and Mongolia." As a dispatch to this paper from Peking, at the time, put the matter, according to Mr. Inouye, the Japanese were only waiting until they could persuade Mr. Lamont to recognise their special position; according to Mr. Lamont, he was waiting till the Japanese could be induced to give up their claims for exclusive rights. "Mr. Lamont says that the Japanese gave in, and the Japanese insist that Mr. Lamont yielded."

The explanation of the whole matter is at once seen when the correspondence, now made available, is examined. In a letter from Earl Curzon, British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to Viscount Chinda, Japanese Ambassador in London, dated March 19 of last year, there occurs this significant passage: in order, however, to meet as far as possible the wishes of the Japanese Government and at the same time to avoid the mention of specific areas, which rightly or wrongly might give rise to the impression that a special sphere of interest was being officially recognised, His Majesty's Government would be prepared to subscribe to a written assurance to the effect that the Japanese Government need have no reason to apprehend that the consortium would direct any activities affecting the security of the economic life and national defense of Japan, and that the Japanese Government can firmly rely on the good faith of the powers concerned to refuse to countenance any operations inimical to such interests.

To those who following the ress of the negotiations with any care, this passage in Lord Curzon's letter is indeed the key to the puzzle. Here, at last, are found, in their proper context, all those disconcerting phrases which were bandied round in the Japanese press, and quoted by Japanese statesmen with such misleading effect. And what does the passage, now that it is seen in its entirety, amount to? So far from being an admission of Japan's claims to "special recognition," it is found to be one of the most effective denials of such a claim that could well be devised. With remarkable astuteness, the British Foreign Minister shows clearly that he recognises the drift of the Japanese efforts. What Japan asks for "might give rise to the impression that a special sphere of interest was being officially recognised." This, Lord Curzon assumes, the Japanese Government will admit is as undesirable as it is impossible, and he then goes on to give a series of assurances which really mean nothing as far as any impairment of China's integrity is concerned. If this statement had been published a year ago, many months of doubt and misunderstanding might have been avoided. The reason why it was not published then, in any form, and is only now allowed to see the light is quite obvious. It amounts to a specific denial of the Japanese claim, and, inasmuch as it was subsequently accepted by Japan, the fact is revealed that Japan is still regarded by Great Britain, and certainly by the United States, as having no special rights in Manchuria and eastern Inner Mongolia. In other words, Japan's effort to secure this recognition through the Consortium have failed of their purpose.

There still, of course, remains the question of the railways controlled by Japan which are excluded from the operation of the Consortium, but that is another, though not unimportant matter.

LOST BALL

Old Andy was a Scotsman, as close as Scots can be,
And he'd been playing golf for years two score and three.
But suddenly without a word,
He sold his clubs (it seemed absurd),
And vowed that he would never tread upon another tee!
His friends were all amazed at such a devotee
Deserting his old game (his handicap was three),
Until at last the truth was told
Why he so soon his clubs had sold.
"I've lost ma ball!" old Andy cried, and tears were in his e'e.

"EVANS OF BROKE"

The complimentary reference in yesterday's CHINA PRESS to Captain E. R. Evans calls to mind a story by Mr. "Puck" of "Tit-Bits." Here it is:

In the navy they call him "Evans of Broke," the man who, by prodigious heroism, saved over a hundred passengers on a steamer wrecked in the Chinese seas.

All his life Captain E. R. Evans seems to have been performing deeds of heroism. While commanding the Broke during the war, he rammed and sank two German destroyers and torpedoed a third—one of the greatest naval feats of the war.

In 1916 Captain Evans married a Norwegian lady, and his proposal was typical of the man. His wife was the acknowledged beauty of her social circle, "I mean to marry a man of action," she said to him.

"Why don't you?" he asked
"No one has asked—"
"Righto," said Evans. And they were married.

That the King of Spain, who celebrated his thirty-fifth birthday recently, takes so lively an interest in pictures that he has been called the King of the Movie Fans.

One of the salons of the royal palace in Madrid has been turned into a fine cinema, equipped with the best movie outfits obtainable, and it gives one show a day. The King, with his family and friends, attends regularly.

Indeed, King Alfonso is a movie expert. He knows all the screen players and most of the plays, and keeps in touch with the latest improvements in animated photography. He is supplied with the films as they come out, and sometimes when a big picture is running in Madrid, he may be seen waiting like an ordinary individual in the queue at the box office.

The King likes all sorts of pictures; but his favorite actor is Charlie Chaplin.

IT'S UP TO YOU MA'AM

The new servant in the home of a civil engineer was getting a guinea a week, and regarded herself as in the professional class. Her airs had the mistress paralysed half the time, but you know how it is with servants these days—you bear the ills you have rather than fly to others that you know not of. But Matilda took a most unaccountable objection to the master of the house. He was sarcastic, Matilda complained, and if there was anything she detested it was sarcastics. However, she was appealed to to bear with the wretched man who knew no better, and she did for another week. Then she confronted the mistress. "I can't stand the master no longer," she said; "and, what's more, I won't. It comes to this—you'll have to choose between us."

In The U.S. Court For China

United States
(on complaint of W. S. Fleming) vs.
George W. Missemer
Cause No. 1239
JUDGMENTS
Filed May 18, 1921.
Acting Clerk.

SYLLABUS

1. Criminal Procedure: Discontinuance: The rule that the discontinuance of a criminal prosecution rests largely in the discretion of the prosecuting officer, applied.

2. Id.: Id.: Where the complaining witness, after having ample time to produce his evidence, leaves the jurisdiction without doing so, or making any provision for disposing of the case, it will be dismissed as of course.

Stirling Fessenden, Esquire, for the motion. Nemo, contra.

LOBINGIER, J.:

On November 29, 1920, an information was filed in this court charging the defendant with having defamed W. S. Fleming in a newspaper article which, in so far is it related to the complainant, was as follows:

"LAWYERS AND LEGAL ETHICS IN SHANGHAI.

"One of the wisest remarks in English literature was made more than a century ago by old Dr. Johnson. He said: 'Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel.' A modern wit has added that 'Patriotism is also a very present help in time of trouble.'

"The above remarks are apropos in connection with incidents which have occurred at the Mixed Court during the past week. Lawyers are frequently able to say things in court which they would not dare to say outside of it—the reason being that in court they enjoy great immunity.

"All Shanghai knows there were some rather sharp remarks passed during the week at the Mixed Court between Dr. Fischer and Mr. W. S. Fleming, the former now a member of the Italian bar, and the latter a member of the American bar. It is high time, of course, that all lawyers should stop making use of the courts for the purpose of indulging in personal recriminations. Things were said on both sides last Wednesday that do not sound very nice in print. But * * we feel it necessary to raise serious objection to a remark made by Mr. Fleming containing mischievous misstatements of fact, enunciated with no other purpose than to create prejudice and thus to reap personal gain—just one of those examples of—Dr. Johnson's dictum about scoundrels who use patriotism as a cloak.

The remark of Mr. Fleming's that was particularly mischievous was simply this: 'Dr. Fischer is an Austrian; he is one of the enemies of my country and an enemy of China.'

"To explain ourselves it will be necessary to review some things that have gone before. Mr. Fleming is an energetic lawyer, keen for business. Although he preaches about 'enemies' he of all members of the American bar did his level best to secure all the German business he could even while his country was at war with the Central Powers. Mr. Fleming was so keen to get this German business during war time that he was advised by his own countrymen that he was going too far. Mr. Fleming enjoyed a profitable German patronage before the war—mostly thrown in his way by the two German lawyers, Voigts and Mahnfeldt. That patronage he has not been able to hold, despite all his best efforts to do so.

"We feel almost certain that this state of affairs is the real basis of his attacks on Dr. Fischer. What nonsense to speak of a man being an 'enemy to my country' two years after the war is over and under such circumstances—instead of patriotism we have pathos. What Mr. Fleming really means is that Dr. Fischer is his most successful competitor."

A hearing of complainant's witnesses was held before the Commissioner and the defendant bound over to this Court and the case set for trial on two different occasions, the last being on December 24. Just before that date complainant asked for another continuance on the ground that he "did not wish to engage in the trial of a libel case so near to Christmas Day."

Since then no attempt has been made by complainant to bring the case to trial. In this court he dispensed with the services of the District Attorney and at his request a Special U. S. Attorney was named who now presents the following motion:

"Now comes Stirling Fessenden, Special United States District Attorney and moves this court that a nolle prosequi be entered to the Information, filed of record herein, for the following reasons:

1. That the said Stirling Fessenden was appointed Special District Attorney at the instance of William S. Fleming to conduct the prosecution of this action.

2. That since the Preliminary Hearing before United States Commissioner Ferno J. Schuhl, the said Stirling Fessenden has not received any instructions from the said complainant William S. Fleming.

3. That the complainant William S. Fleming left the jurisdiction of this court in the month of February 1921, without giving any notice to the said Stirling Fessenden of his intention to leave the jurisdiction.

4. That the said William S. Fleming is not at present within the jurisdiction of this court, and the said Stirling Fessenden has no knowledge or information as to when the said William S. Fleming will return to the jurisdiction of this court.

5. That the said Stirling Fessenden does not wish to represent the said William S. Fleming any further in this action.

6. That on April 6, 1921, the said Stirling Fessenden addressed a letter to R. T. Bryan, Esq., a partner of the said William S. Fleming, stating in substance that the said Stirling Fessenden did not desire to further act for the said William S. Fleming and requesting said R. T. Bryan, Esq., to take over the case.

7. That the said R. T. Bryan Esq., replied to said letter under date of April 7, 1921, stating among other things that he could not see his way clear to prosecute this case and suggesting that if the defense insists on proceeding, that the said Stirling Fessenden file a nolle prosequi.

8. That in view of the matters as stated above, the said Stirling Fessenden is of the opinion that a nolle prosequi ought, in view of all the circumstances, be entered.

Attached to the motion is a copy of the letter from complainant's partners as follows:

U. S. v. MISSEMER

Dear Sir: We beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 13th instant regarding the above entitled matter, and in reply thereto beg to state that this case is a personal matter of Mr. Fleming's, and neither Mr. Davies nor Mr. Bryan have received any instructions from him regarding same.

Both Mr. Davies and Mr. Bryan approve of your motion and suggest that you request the Court to allow same.

Yours very truly,
Fleming, Davies and Bryan,
By R. T. Bryan, Jr."

We have held in several cases and it is the general rule, that the discontinuance of a criminal prosecution is largely in the discretion of the prosecuting officer. Here complainant's partners join in the request for a discontinuance. The complainant was given full charge of the case from the beginning, and has had six months to produce evidence that the statements regarding himself in the article complained of were false as alleged in the information. During all that period, moreover, defendant, at complainant's insistence has been under bond not to leave the jurisdiction while complainant has left it without making any provision for disposing of the case. To allow it to remain longer on the docket under such circumstances would not only be manifestly unfair but would be allowing the machinery of the court to be trifled with.

The motion for a discontinuance is granted, the cause is dismissed at the cost of the complainant, and the defendant's bond is ordered returned to him.

By the Court,
CHARLES S. LOBINGIER,
Judge.

Of the libraries of ancient Egypt our knowledge is scattered and imperfect, but at a time extending to more than 6,000 years ago we find numerous scribes of many classes who recorded official events in the life of their royal masters or details of their domestic affairs and business transactions.

A heavy blow was dealt to the old Egyptian literature by the Persian invasion of Cambyses (B.C. 525), many books being carried away by the conquerors.

After the Greek conquest (B.C. 332) by Alexander the Great, who founded Alexandria, the libraries of Alexandria became the most important and the most celebrated of the ancient world, one, the Brucheum containing 490,000 volumes or rolls.

Kapayang Estates, Ltd., Hold 12th Annual Meeting

The 12th annual meeting of the Kapayang Estates, Ltd., was held yesterday at the office of their secretary, Mr. Beck. Mr. E. T. Byrne presided and was supported by Messrs. G. D. Coutts and E. L. Hunter, directors and shareholders, representing 5,934 shares.

The notice convening the meeting and auditors' report having been read, the chairman said:

"With your permission I will adopt the usual procedure and take the report and accounts as read.

"I need hardly say the present price of rubber is causing your directors considerable concern as it is obvious we cannot continue for ever selling rubber under the cost of production, but you will be glad to know that the average cost of 58.73 cents per pound in 1920 was due to abnormal conditions that have since been removed and this year's cost should not be much above 33 or 35 cents, which is not far over today's selling price. At the same time I may observe that reducing the output of a small estate such as ours allows little or no reduction in the overhead charges. However, the estate is in excellent condition and we hope we can still further cut down working expenses.

"It is difficult to forecast the future, but the general reduction of all output of all estates if carried out in a drastic manner should make itself felt before long, but we must bear in mind that stocks all over the world in both crude and manufactured rubber are over large and will have to be absorbed before an improvement sets in.

"The present crisis, however, will show what can be done in reducing the cost of production and prove the value of good and careful management and we feel sure our own manager Mr. Knott fully realises the situation.

"The report leaves me nothing more to tell you. As regards the accounts we have now a small debit balance with our bankers and are seriously considering the issue of 200 shares still unissued to those big holders who wish to protect their interests and title the estate over a most difficult period."

There were no questions. The report and accounts were passed, Mr. E. T. Byrne was re-elected a director, and Messrs. Mortimer Reid and Slee auditors at a fee of Tls. 200.

Ten Full Counts In Big Quarrel -:- By Ring W. Lardner

To the Editor:

Every once in so often old Doc Crane breaks loose with an article in regards to one thing another, and one time he asked a lot of questions about one thing another, and unlest a man could answer them all without looking it up in the seed catalogue, why you was supposed to be a moron poor and simple, and the questions the Doc asked was so tough that a whole lot of our smartest Alex took just one look and then went to the county cuckoo cage and gave themselfs up and couldn't get out to vote.

Well it didn't do so much harm to get all them people out of the way, but now the Doc has came acrost with 20 rules on how to be a happy marriage and they are even tougher than the cuckoo test, but it wouldn't make no differents to me as I have all ready got the proposition mastered without no doctor's prescription, but still and all this country is full of young upstarts that may of been just getting ready to assume the connubial yokel and all of a sudden they run acrost the Doc's dope and say it can't be done and they decide to remain celebrates and then what is to become of them 2 grand American institutions, the home and the rent for same.

So in order to perpetrate same by not allowing our young singletons to discourage themselfs with the Doc's dope, I have wrote out a set of 10 simple rules instead of 20 tough ones witch means it won't only take ½ as long to be a happy marriage and twice as easy.

The marital twain should ought to be opp. sex if possible and somewheres near the other one's age. For inst. when a man of 15 gets marred to a gal 45 why it may pan out all right for the time being, but don't never forget that when the groom is nearing the century mark and wants to know where they's a clean bath towel, why he can't find out without leaving Conan Doyle into the secret.

2.

The ideal marred life is for the 2 belligerents to live in the same town so as when they feel like a brawl they won't be no toll charges.

3.

The bride should ought to have at lease as much money as the groom and a salary of her own so as when she feels like she has got to buy something she don't want she will know that it's her money being throwed away. All women hates to feel like they as spongeing off of their husbands but the most of them is such a good actress that you wouldn't never guess how it hurts them.

If the union is crowned with a offspring the offspring should be crowned at intervals by the father. Otherwise the mother should have exclusive rights as care taker as even a baby don't like to change horses in the middle of the night and wile the old adage says that everybody ought to have 8 hrs. sleep, why it amounts to the same thing if a couple splits 16 hrs. between them, the husband getting the winners share of 80 percent and ½ the picture rights.

5.

As Doc Crane says, it ain't right to find fault with the other on no grounds and the best way is to portend like you are tickled to death with everything she does. Like for inst. if you are ½ way home on the train and she shreaks that she has forgot her pocket book, lean over and give her a good loud kiss.

6.

Both partys should try and talk about subjects that the other is interested in it. They ain't no husband cares a d—m if the wash woman that is comeing next wk. gos to a different church than the one that was here last wk. and they's very few wifes cares the same amt. whether Dempsey is going to knock Geo. for a corps in Ludington or Ft. Worth, so the idear is that when supper is over and the loveing pair sets down in the loveing rm. to wait till its polite to go to bed, the husband should ought to insist that they won't be no conversation unlest its about the wash woman and the wife should ought to insist that they won't be no conversation unlest its about the location of Geo's flop, and if the both of them insist hard enough they won't be no conversation at all witch boarders on the ideal.

7.

In most familys its too cold to set up late but when the partys retires the wife wants to go right to sleep like a horse or something wile the husband wants to read, but the wife can't sleep wile they's a light in the rm. and the husband can't go to sleep unlest he reads a wile. This can be overcome by a unselfish spirit on both sides. Let the wife keep saying "I don't want you to not read on my acct." and keep turning the light on and the husband keep saying "I don't want you to not sleep on my acct. or you will crab about it all day tomorrow" and every time she turns the light on he turns it off and in this way its morning before you know it and both sides a winner.

Married life is a job just the same as like a telegraph operator or a embalmer and every employ is entitled to 2 wks. vacation per annum and if the husband takes a 2 wks. vacation trip every Summer and vice versa, why they will get so as they won't miss their regular job ½ as much as if they was on it all the wile. For inst. I knew a couple where the husband used to go South for a mo. every Winter and one time he didn't come home at all and all of his relic's friends was feeling sorry for her where as she didn't know he was still missing till one night in August when a bat got in the house and she screamed and nobody told her to shut up.

Doc Crane advises married couples to not both get mad at the same time, the old spoil sport. That was the trouble with Carpentier and Levinsky over in Jersey was because Levinsky didn't lose his temper though the boys tell me he had even more reason than the saps that paid $55 for a ringside seat. They's no fun playing tennis unlest the guy on the other side of the net has got a racket and the same gos for a connubial quarl and my advice is for the husband to call up home just before he leaves the office and ask the spouse if she is feeling brutal this evening and if she ain't she better be, because by the time he gets the right number they won't nobody half to wait till dog days to see him forth at the mouth.

10.

Finely, try and forget once in a wile that you are marred and go out somewheres together for a good time. Don't go to dance or a card party or a good show or the opera, but pick out something that the both of you can enjoy, like for inst. a 3 cushion billiard match or a cock fight or to watch the high school football five practice. Remember always that you swore at each other at the altar that each was taking the other from bad to worse and may the best man win.

Connell Bros. Company,

AGENTS

Attractions At The Theaters

The H. B. Waring Company at the Lyceum, the Russian Opera Company at the Olympic, pictures at the other theaters and the announcement of recitals and concerts assure a busy week for the Shanghai theatergoer.

The Waring Company is playing to big houses nightly and is regarded by many as the best comedy company that has ever played in Shanghai. The people in the Company appear to be at home in any sort of a production and have given a varied and attractive series of plays. Tonight "Mr. Pim Passes By" will be repeated and tomorrow will bring "The Witness for the Defense," another popular production. On Saturday night Mr. Quartermaine is to appear in his original role in "Don." The matinee offering for Saturday will be "She Stoops to Conquer."

RUSSIAN OPERA COMPANY

"Gypsy Love" and "The Dollar Princess," two old American favorites, are the Russian Opera Company attractions for tonight and tomorrow night at the Olympic Theater. On Saturday night "The Marriage Market," another American favorite will be sung.

Although sung in Russian, the music by Lehar, Fall or Jacobi is brought home to the comic opera devotee. The management also gives the synopsis of each operetta in English so that those who do not understand Russian are able to follow the progress of the plot with ease. "Gypsy Love," with its story of Zorika's dream and awakening, will probably draw a big house tonight.

JIGGS BACK AGAIN

Jiggs, Maggie and their beautiful daughter return to the Apollo Theater tonight and the characters in McManus' "Bringing Up Father" cartoons, which appear in THE CHINA PRESS, will prove as popular as when they were screened at the Apollo before. The S.R.O. signs were out nightly when Jiggs was on the bill some weeks ago. The title of the Jiggs picture beginning tonight is "Jiggs in Society."

A six-part drama, "The Hell Cat," featuring Geraldine Farrar, vies with Jiggs for the premier place on the program.

In addition to the two excellent pictures, the management of the Apollo announces that Mlle. Lasskovskaya, Russian danseuse, Mme. Vodarsky and Mr. Ergolsky will have numbers on the vaudeville program.

AT THE VICTORIA

At the Victoria tonight Marguerite Clark stars in "Prunella," a Paramount photoplay. "Prunella" will also be screened at the Saturday matinee.

ISIS THEATER

Ruth Roland, who does all sorts of thrilling stunts on the screen, continues to draw at the Isis. In "Ruth of the Rockies" she does death-defying stunts from airplanes, seaplanes and lighthouses. Ruth certainly does not want for action.

Beginning tomorrow at the Isis, Constance Talmadge is featured in "A Temperamental Wife," a film play dealing with wives and stenographers.

TCHERKASSKAYA AGAIN

Madame M. B. Tcherkasskaya, who delighted Shanghai audiences on several occasions this spring, will give another concert at the Olympic Theater next Sunday evening, her program including selections in Russian, Italian, French, Greek and English. She will be assisted by Mrs. Frederick Tillson, mezzo-soprano; Mr. P. F. Selivanoff, basso, formerly of the Petrograd Imperial Theater; and Mr. I. E. Gillersberg, pianist. Mrs. C. M. Shirokogoroff and Professor Harry Ore will play the accompaniments.

Among the numbers on the highly varied program are the Duet from Aida; the delicate Berceuse Jocelyn; Nevin's "Rosary;" and several Tschaikowsky selections. Mme. Tcherkasskaya's varied experience as a prima donna in Petrograd, Milan, and Paris has given her a repertoire of unusual scope.

LEO PODOLSKY COMING

Mr. Leo Podolsky, the famous Russian pianist of the Royal Musical Acadamy who was to have given his recital here on April 28, is returning here shortly and will give a recital at the Olympic Theater on May 31.

Mr. Podolsky has had a very successful season in Tientsin and Peking just prior to his trip to Japan and meets with big success at present in Tokio.

Miss Vera Mirova, the famous Russian Danseuse will also show her skill in the art of Oriental and other dances.

The plans will be open in a few days at Messrs. S. Moutrie and Co. when seats can be reserved. The prices of admission being $3, $2 and $1.

Mixed Court Jottings

A verdict was returned yesterday by Assessor Hutchison and Magistrate Tsang following the inquest held over the bodies of the Chinese broker, Woo Tih-kyung and his sweetheart who died May 2 of strychnine poisoning after a meal eaten in the residence of the girl's mother, at 64 Hupeh Road. The verdict was to the effect that the broker was a suicide and that the girl died either of strychnine self-administered or given her by some person or persons unknown. Five persons partook of the meal and none of the others suffered ill effects. Letters from the broker's relatives stated that he was in financial straits and that they were not surprised at his death.

Of four coolies charged with the highway robbery of two Japanese in an alleyway off Yalu Road earlier in the month one was sentenced to a year's imprisonment yesterday and the others to three months each.

A Chinese convicted of breaking into the American School on April 30 and stealing a number of the students' overcoats was sentenced to two years' imprisonment yesterday. Several other burglaries and larcenies were also credited to him.

S. G. Pinighen, a Russian, living at 8B Miller Road, appeared yesterday on the charge of being in unlawful possession of firearms. The charge was dismissed but a pistol and ammunition seized by the police were ordered confiscated.

Two Chinese were brought to court yesterday on the charge of participating in the armed robbery of a rice shop at 3266 Yangtszepoo Road on January 19 when loot to the value of over $1,000 was secured. The first of the two was arrested on suspicion, Detective Sergeant Gabbutt testified, and admitted being concerned in three armed robberies, in one of which a woman was shot in the leg. He implicated the second accused, who confessed that he had been sent to employment in a mill by the leader of the band and was acting as a spy, reporting on likely places to rob. Two of the gang have been sentenced already. The case was remanded.
